

Inspire young people for generations to come

IntoUniversity provides a ladder out of poverty for some of the UK's most disadvantaged young people.

By supporting young people to gain a university place we open up a world of new life-possibilities including professional careers. This benefit cascades through the generations because the children of graduates are much more likely to be graduates themselves.

We can only do this with the support of people like you, who want to see young people succeed, no matter what their background.

Cortland's story

‘I enjoyed a fantastic education, for which neither I nor my family ever paid a penny. I chose to remember IntoUniversity in my Will because I want young people in the future to have access to the excellent opportunities IntoUniversity is able to offer them – to have the sort of chances that I had...’

Cortland Fransella

We know that the people close to you come first when you are planning for the future. But many people also want to support the causes they feel passionately about.

Including a gift in your Will costs nothing during your lifetime, but will allow us to support thousands of young people in the years to come.

You could choose to leave a specific amount to the charity (a pecuniary legacy), or a percentage of your estate (a residuary legacy).

Any gift to IntoUniversity would be tax-exempt owing to our charitable status.

How will we use your gift?

Legacies can make a huge difference to the work of our charity as a whole, but you may wish to say how you would like your legacy to be used. A member of our senior team will be happy to talk this through with you.

‘I was lucky to have supportive and knowledgeable parents who guided me all the way to university and beyond – and I’ve done the same for my two children. The wonderful thing about IntoUniversity is that it provides that support and knowledge to children from families who don’t have the know-how or resources to give their children a head start in life. That’s why I’ve chosen to leave a legacy to IntoUniversity in my Will. It’s the best engine for social mobility and equalising opportunities that I’ve come across.’
